

IT'S OYSTERFEST TIME!

The Pick n Pay Knysna Oyster Festival begins on Friday this week, with a jam-packed programme of events guaranteed to keep locals and visitors of all ages entertained. Whilst the 10 day festival brings a much-needed influx of more than 50 000 excited visitors to the area, Garden Route residents certainly don't shy away from joining in the fun that is happening right here on the doorstep.

Aside from the popular weekend sporting events, such as the Momentum Weekend Argus Rotary Knysna Cycle Tour (2nd and 3rd July) and the Momentum Cape Times Knysna Forest Marathon (9 July), highlights of this year's Festival include:

Food and drink:-

- Look out for Oyster Hotspots – restaurants in and around Knysna and Sedgefield where you'll find oyster specials and other interesting dishes over the 10-day period.
- As part of the Best of Brunch promo, local restaurants will serve up delicious takes on everyone's favourite meal – brunch!
- The Knysna Wine Festival and Night Market will host some of South Africa's best wine estates on 4 and 5 July where you can meet local winemakers, taste their latest wines and learn about the latest trends in wine-making. As an extra treat, Heather Walters will perform live on 4 July and Robin Auld on 5 July.
- Seafood Wednesday takes place on 6 July, giving seafood lovers another chance to indulge in all manner of seafood. The event kicks off with a seafood walk-around at participating restaurants during the day; a seafood braai competition takes place in the afternoon, and the ever-popular oyster shucking and eating competition takes centre stage in the early evening.
- Flavours of Knysna served with Tabasco Sauce, also part of Seafood Wednesday, will see some of the best local eateries going head to head in the oyster stakes. We hear Sedgefield's PiliPili (last year's winners) will be there to defend their title!
- The Oyster, Bubbly and Chocolate Experience will be hosted at the Simola Hotel at 18:00 on 3 July where visitors can enjoy instructional bubbly tastings from five different estates, paired with the decadent combination of oysters and chocolate.

Live entertainment:-

- The Comedy Shuckle is a Festival must-see, with top comedians Schalk Bezuidenhout and Kagiso Mokgadi ready to have you doubled over in laughter.
- The Exclusive Glenmorangie Whiskey & Live Jazz cruise is a festive addition to this year's line-up on 3 July at 17:30.
- If the classics are more your cup of tea, then don't miss the all-new Opera Gala Concerts on 7 and 8 July.

For the little ones:-

Here's saying cheers to one and all, for a fantastic Oyster Festival!

A change of pace

Notes from T'Ed's Head

Too soon? I hope not.

The success of the United Kingdom's campaign for their departure from the European Union has given hope to the local behind-the-scenes movement vying to reclaim Sedgefield's independence from the Greater Knysna, popularly known as SEXIT.

"If Britain can do it, so can we!" said Boris Janssen, the chief campaigner behind the exit movement, as he lead the throngs of the banner-carrying 'Let's Leave' chanters down Main Street.

He and the other members of the increasingly supported organisation Sedgefield Independence from the Control of Knysna (SICK), along with their more extreme counterparts of the Time to Initiate Radically Enforced Departure (TIRED) group, believe that the positive implications of Sedgefield's divorcing itself from the Greater Knysna Union (GKU) far outweigh any negative ones.

"Knysna Union's policies claim to ensure the free movement of people, goods, services, and capital between Knysna and Sedgefield, but I do not believe this is to our advantage," he stated. "If you think that, in the current situation, our own economic markets (all three of them) function independently of Knysna, yet they are regularly flooded with Knysna refugees, often taking the food out of Sedgefielders' own mouths!"

He gave an example of his wife having missed the last of Joe's famous steak and kidney pies last weekend because a non-Sedgefielder had purchased it only seconds earlier.

The SEXIT campaign manifestoes for both SICK and TIRED argue that conforming to the strict and often unreasonable trade specifications set by the politico economic union of all the suburb members of Greater Knysna have changed the character of Sedgefield's commercial sector since the village was absorbed into the TIRED suggest that many Sedgefield locals are still struggling with the numerous Union laws, including what they conceive as bizarre regulations such as stopping at stop streets, parking in designated parking bays, keeping dogs on leads and not going to the supermarket in pyjamas.

"Such stuff and nonsense, policed by the Knysna Law Enforcement, only serve to chip away at the very core of what made Sovereign Sedgefield so special when it was an independent municipality," Garage told us.

Meanwhile Boris Janssen is assuring the increasing SEXIT support base that the fiscal implications of leaving the GKU will put Sedgefield on a much firmer footing. He states that paying the Knysna Municipality millions of Rands in rates and taxes every year has done very little for the village.

"All they do is spend it on wages and infrastructure," he reasoned. "Whilst if that money was kept in Sedgefield we could support far more important initiatives." Examples he gave included the proposal for an Olympic sized heated public swimming pool on The Island, open bar Karaoke parties on the Village Green, a permanent drive in cinema on Cloud 9, and free Wine Tasting on Thursdays.

Though far less vociferous than the SEXIT campaigners, those who are lobbying for Sedgefield to retain its position in the Greater Knysna Union are hoping that the Village People will see sense in keeping the Status Quo as is.

"I don't want any change. I have all their albums," said REMAIN campaigner David Cameroff cryptically. His counterparts, through their hastily assembled Sedgefield United in Commitment to Knysna's Sovereignty (SUCKS), have recently reversed their decision to call for a referendum on the SEXIT motion, citing that the vote would more likely be an emotional one rather than based on the hard facts of the matter. "The SEXIT movement aren't playing fair," SUCKS spokesman Jeremy Corblimey angrily pointed out, "They are basing much of their campaign on suggestions that people from elsewhere in the GKU are stealing their jobs. Yet everyone knows that lying on their backs and floating upstream on the tide or sitting on the beach and drinking red wine is what most Sedgefielders term 'a busy day at the office!'"

He added that the GKU regulations that the SEXIT backers felt were throttling what they call the Sedgefield Way of Life only served to replace original, far more complex laws and by laws that were already in place when Sedgefield was its own entity.

"For example – The GKU by-law that allows bottle-stores to trade on Sundays replaces the original Sedgefield by-law which said 'Bottle-stores should remain strictly closed on Sundays, except in cases of emergency, such as unexpected lunch guests, or the Grand Prix, whereby a customer may meet the owner of the bottle-store round the back where no-one can see'."

The leadership of the Greater Knysna Union are keeping mum about SEXIT, but most certainly be watching carefully – especially amidst rumours that Brenton, Buffalo Bay and Rheendal may follow Sedgefield's lead.

"It seems that we're not alone in our quest for self-governance," said Janssen, "If SEXIT succeeds, other wards may also embark on a course of Municipal Area Departure. And quite frankly... They'd be MAD if they didn't!"

Many residents of Smutsville have been continuously shaking their heads in dismay over the last month or two - because the state of the streets and public areas in their community has made them feel like they are on the 'back burner' when it comes to receiving some municipal services. They say this has the knock on effect of destroying any pride the community may have in the town, and for some, even the desire to keep it clean.

The general call is for a combined effort from the residents themselves and the Municipality to get the Smutsville/ Sizamile neighbourhoods tidied up and to keep them that way.

The unofficial dumping ground pictured above is adjacent to David Curry Crescent, which has become a real eye-sore to people living in the surrounding community. "It's like a free for all," complained one young man, who asked that his name be kept out of print, "Everything gets dumped there - from household waste to builders' rubble to garden waste. Nobody seems to see anyone dumping, so maybe they do it at night or when everyone is at work, but it just keeps growing."

He says that every once in a while some of the rubbish does get removed by the municipality, but not all. And it isn't long before the noxious piles are huge again.

Worse yet, that same street has two creches situated on it, so parents have to walk past the unofficial rubbish tip with their toddlers - which is neither safe nor hygienic.

"We appeal to the community to stop dumping here, or anywhere in Smutsville and Sizamile," the man said, pointing out that there were several other illegal 'dump spots', though none as big as this one. "The problem is that because people do not have anywhere to put their rubbish that is within walking distance, they will just dump it anywhere. What we would like is a properly organised place with rubbish skips that can be taken away and emptied."

He says that numerous requests have been made to Knysna Municipality for a big clean-up but nothing seems to be done.

"We are tired of complaining. Sometimes I feel like we have been forgotten about," he admitted.

Another member of the community, was quick to agree with him, saying that it is hard to stimulate the community to take pride in the town and keep the streets clean when Smutsville always seems to be forgotten about.

She reported that the broken toilets leaking foul water around the communal tap in Montana Street, which had been featured in The EDGE in April this year, had still not been repaired, despite the fact that the Eden Health Inspector had visited the area several times to assess the situation.

Because the toilets, which served over 100 informal dwellings, had no doors and were in a state of disrepair, residents were using the 'bucket system'. Which meant the emptying of their 'toilet buckets' into the public toilet bowls on a daily basis.

Mothers doing their washing at the nearby tap were susceptible to picking up all sorts of germs, as were any children who accompanied them.

Children in the area had been reported as suffering from recurring illness, and it was feared that an epidemic could easily start.

In reply to our enquiry in April, the Knysna Municipality had thanked The EDGE Newspaper for bringing the situation to their attention, and reported that the relevant departments would be investigating the matter and implementing solutions as soon as procedurally possible.

"The health of our communities, especially its children, must be protected and cared for, and it is the duty of local government to create a caring environment," said Municipal manager Grant Easton.

KNYSNA BUDGET FOCUS ON INFRASTRUCTURE

The Municipal budget for Knysna for the 2016/17 financial year was tabled on May 31st by Executive Mayor Georlene Wolmarans as part of her final State of the Town & Budget address.

"The budget for the next financial year continues to reflect the strategies and priorities of the town, chief among them the need to address our dire water security issues", Wolmarans said in her initial remarks.

"The new budget for Knysna Municipality amounts to approximately R914 million comprising of R175.5 million in capital expenditures and R739 million for operating expenses. This constitutes a considerable increase of 16% on the adjusted budget for 2015/2016 which amounted to a total of R789 million."

The approximated funds in the capital budget have been earmarked as follows: R57 million for housing and infrastructure, R23 million for upgrades to the pumping scheme at Charlesford dam, a R10 million NDPG grant for multi-purpose centres, R8 million for the water treatment plant, R3 million for a new cemetery and R5 million for upgrades to Grey Street. R400 000 has been allocated to each ward for their respective projects."

"The cost of increased service delivery to our ever-growing population is clearly becoming an increasing burden on our limited revenue budget," continued Wolmarans.

"The topography of the town means that the basic services we are constitutionally obliged to provide are always costlier than other municipalities. The knock-on effects of Eskom tariffs and our water scarcity are also substantial."

Turning to the state of the town's roads, Wolmarans said: "We are demonstrating a clear commitment to improve and maintain our roads infrastructure by approximately doubling the expenditure on repairs and maintenance of our roads, to R35 million in the next financial year."

To fund the budget, the municipality depends on revenue income obtained from rates and taxes, various provincial and national government grants, and the Equitable Share from National Treasury, which has increased after the relevant formula was adjusted to reflect the latest census figures.

Of main concern to the residents of Knysna are the changes in tariffs, rates and rebates which are as follows:

- The electricity revenue tariff will increase by 7.6%, as approved by the National Energy Regulator.
- The first two consumption tiers for the water tariff will increase by 7% with tariffs in subsequent tiers rising more as consumption increases. The free water allocation to indigent residents will remain at 6 kilo-litres per month, while for non-indigent residents the allocation will be lowered to 3 kilo-litres.
- The sewerage tariff and refuse tariff will increase by 7.5% and 8% respectively. The refuse tariff will most likely be adjusted upwards when the transport and operating cost of the new Eden landfill site near Mossel Bay becomes operational.
- Other minor tariffs will also increase by 8.9%, unless specifically shown to be different in the tariff book.
- In terms of domestic assessment rates, the increase in the rate of the rand will be 7% for domestic and non-domestic properties.
- The assessment rate rebate for domestic owners will be reduced to 10%, with the Green Rate reduced to 5% and the Rural Rebate scrapped in its totality. The additional portion of domestic property value which is excluded will remain at R100 000.

"Knysna is predominantly domestic in its tax base and the downturn in the national economy means development has virtually ceased, which has necessitated council to fast track economic development," explained Wolmarans.

"Thus there are three options which we must avidly pursue: firstly, aggressively grow our status as a preferred national and international tourist hub taking advantage of the exchange rate, secondly to actively seek investment in eco-friendly manufacturing to create more jobs and, lastly, create more jobs by attracting more service-based companies to the area."

Wolmarans highlighted the fact that Knysna has obtained three consecutive "clean" audits by the Auditor General.

The final budget documents are available on www.knysna.gov.za or copies can be obtained from the Municipal Offices in Queen Street.

From the Mayor's Desk

Dear readers, we are at the end of a month where the youth was the main focus in a variety of ways. We started with Child Protection Week that included International Children's Day on the 1st of June, and Youth Day was celebrated on the 16th of June.

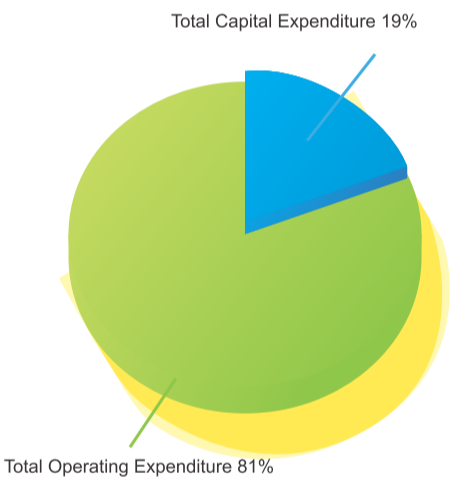

As a Council we've been involved in numerous initiatives to support, equip, and facilitate development of opportunities. One of the initiatives close to my heart was our continued support of the youngest members of our communities through Early Childhood Development Centres, which create the footing for our children. I am also excited about KnysnaON, a massive ICT infrastructure development that will bring superfast fibre-optic broadband to Knysna. Along with it comes the prospect of investment and job creation – from health and education to IT, from film productions to call centres. It also promises to overcome the current barriers to information and communication tools experienced by our poorer communities, due to the discriminatory nature of current data packages. KnysnaON will open the world to our town, and open Knysna to the world.

Believing that a focus on sport will help to direct our youth away from the substance abuse and other social ills that plague the town, we are continuously investing in the upgrading of sport and multi-purpose community centres. Smutsville Multi-purpose centre will be completed soon, and there are plans for upgrades to the sportsfields in Hornlee, Dam-se-Bos and Rheenendal.

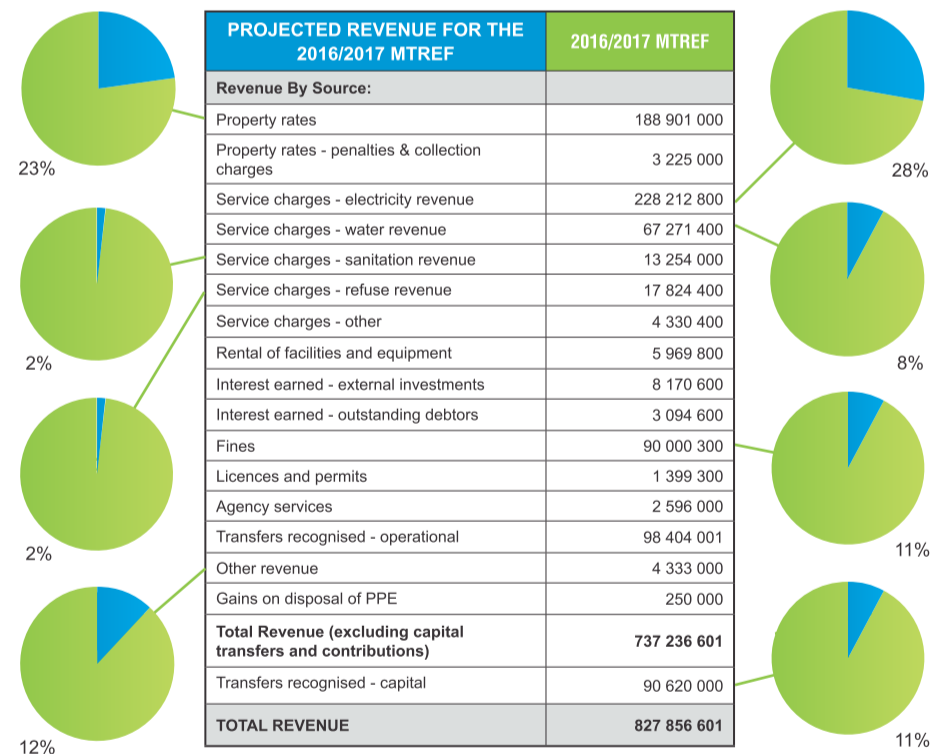

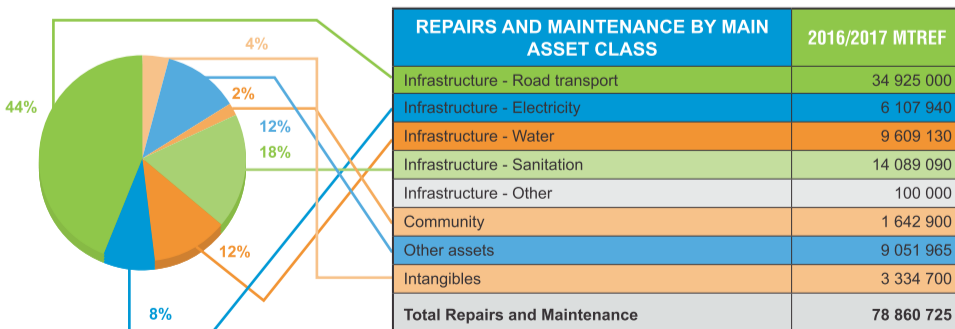

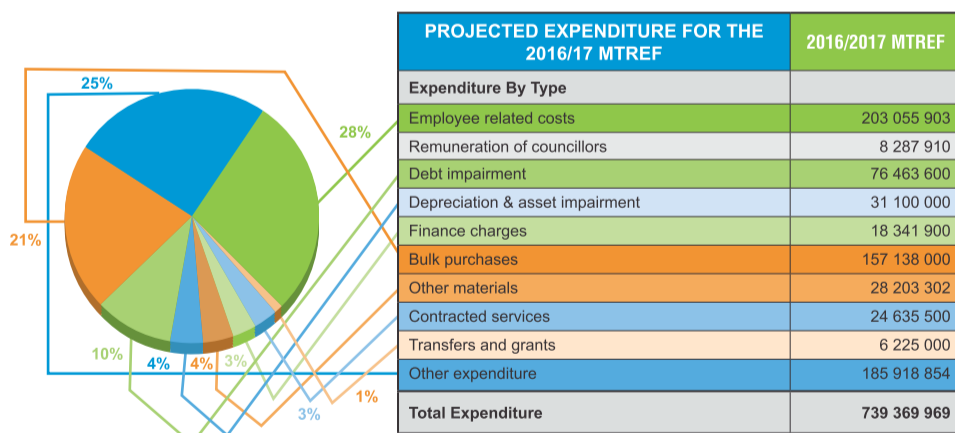

However, let's be honest. The Youth makes up 60% of our population, if we do not get their input and buy-in, and their commitment to help create collective solutions for collective problems like poverty, crime, substance abuse, child abuse, the state of schools and lack of respect generally – we have a problem. That is why we recently established the Knysna Youth Council. This is an instrument to bridge a divide, in this instance between generations and most importantly between what our generation assumes the next generation desires and what the youth actually want for their future.

We say the youth are the leaders of the future, however I think that we need them to be involved now to be part of the solutions for the issues we face. As I wind down my responsibilities towards August, one of my hopes is that the Youth Council will flourish and take ownership of the issues important to them, and that the future Council will support them every step of the way.

SEDGE DRAMA STAR NOW ON TV!

Fifteen year old Llewellyn Bond will soon be gracing our screens as he takes a guest role in "Suidooster". This is a much anticipated new Afrikaans 'soapie' - the first to be filmed in Cape Town - which focuses on the lives of three families as they work in and around a small business centre in the fictional suburb of Ruiterbosch.

Our talented young lad, a product of Smutsville School from grade R to grade 3, Laerskool Sedgefield Primary from grade 4 to 7, and now George High School where he is currently in Grade 10, was given this fantastic opportunity after his performance in the stage play 'Affie Kleinplaas' which won the Eden Drama Festival in 2015 and the Tridistrict Drama Festival earlier this year in Cape Town. Bond was awarded Best Supporting Actor for his performance alongside play-writer Samuel Jumat.

In Suidooster, our local lad will be playing the part of a boy called 'Spike' who, on seeing a deli owner find a valuable ring on the shop floor, rushes in to try and convince him it is his. Bond says filming the 40 second scene, which was done on 15 June, was an experience on its own. Clocking in at the kykNET Cape Town studio at 7am and working right through to 7pm, he described it as a very tiring but very rewarding day.

Bond's mother Jacqui Salmons and stepfather Bremen, both well-known locals, are convinced that the short guest appearance will open doors for future TV roles for the teenager. His enthusiasm matches his talent, and he is determined to 'make it' as an actor on stage and screen. Bond mentioned how especially grateful he is to his family for their support, and to Jumat, who he describes as his friend and brother, for providing him with the opportunity. He encourages other youngsters to actively follow their dreams, but be prepared to put in the hard work to achieve them. "When you set a goal in life, do anything to try and realise it. And say to yourself 'I can and I will,'" he said.

Look out for Suidooster on kykNET channel 144 - Our local star will be appearing on 21 September.

WAVES OF CHANGE IN THE GRNP

The staff of the Garden Route National Park bid farewell to the General Manager Jill Bunding-Venter on Friday 24 June.

Jill has been on the SANParks team for 25 years, including stints in the Arid Frontier and Garden Route regions. She has worked in the People and Conservation Division, the Scientific Division, was a Park Manager for Wilderness and then General Manager of the Garden Route National Park (GRNP).

Jill has championed many difficult projects in the organisation and will now be heading up Strategy & Business Planning, for which she will be based in Groenkloof, Pretoria in the Chief Operating Officer's office.

At her farewell Tsitsikamma Ranger Marco Barnado said that Jill was well known amongst the staff for her persistent strength.

"A river cuts through a rock not because of its power but its persistence. You have drilled through a lot of rocks in the GRNP and they are still standing tall and proud of the support you have given them!"

Jill Bunding-Venter, soon to be based in SANParks H/Q in Pretoria

SANParks also bids farewell to Area Manager of Tsitsikamma, Lesley Ann Meyer who will be moving to the Table Mountain National Park as Park Manager.

New additions to the GRNP management team.

- Park Manager (Garden Route National Park) is Paddy Gordon who was formerly the Park Manager of the Table Mountain National Park.
- New Area Manager for Tsitsikamma is Bulelwa Msengi who was formerly Park Manager for Agulhas National Park.

- Area Manager for Knysna is Johan de Klerk.
- Area Manager for Wilderness is Sandra Taljaard.
- Manager Planning: Len du Plessis.
- Manager Business Development: Andile Namntu.
- Manager People & Conservation: Elzette Bester.
- Manager Communications: Nandi Mgwadlamba.
- Manager Cross-marketing (Frontier Region Eastern Cape Parks & Garden Route): Henriette Engelbrecht.
- Manager Finance: Derec Giles.

SANParks will be merging the Garden Route Region (Wilderness, Knysna and Tsitsikamma) with the Frontier Region (Addo, Camdeboo, Karoo, Mountain Zebra). The General Manager is Dries Engelbrecht. Scientific Services will now be headed up by Dr. Stefanie Freitag, with Dr. Ian Russel (Aquatic) and Dr. Wessel Vermeulen (terrestrial).

A huge thanks to both Jill and Lesley-Ann for their efficient service to the Region and SANParks. We welcome Dries, Stefanie, Paddy and Bulelwa to the GRNP family.

THREE ARTIST EXHIBITION

Three well known artists and close friends, Penny Baillie, Cherry Viljoen and Sheila Cooper Collins, will be getting together in Sedgfield, for a joint exhibition of their recent paintings, during the first week in July from Saturday the 2nd to the Sunday the 10th July. The exhibition will take place at 33, Andries Pretorius Street- (corner of Paul Kruger Street and one kilometre up the road from the Wild Oats Market!) on the Island in Sedgfield, from 10am until 4.30pm daily. Penny, is a well-known artist from Pretoria, now based in Johannesburg, while Cherry and Sheila have been painting and exhibiting in the Garden Route for the last 23 years. This promises to be an exceptional exhibition of colourful and unusual art from three very competent and accomplished artists with diverse and distinctive styles.

About this coming exhibition, Penny says that her work is "inextricably bound to what is happening in my life at any moment in time. An experience, or an encounter, can trigger off the need to make a painting. The new body of work, prepared for the forthcoming exhibition, is more personal and reflective than previous works. It is common knowledge that one does become more introspective with passing years....."

Cherry's approach to her vibrant paintings is that she "likes to go beyond the obvious and predictable in a decorative and colourful way". Sheila's passion for the environment is revealed in her latest vistas of fynbos. All are welcome to visit the exhibition. Enquiries: Sheila Collins at 044 3431828

During the two Saturday mornings of the 2nd and 9th July

'The Woodman's Cottage' by Cherry Viljoen

'Flying Trio' by Penny Baillie

'Fynbos Vista' by Sheila Cooper Collins

smaller works will be exhibited at the Wild Oats Market, together with artists from Sheila's Painting Group - weather permitting!!

Penny will be giving a workshop for the Sedgfield Art Society on Monday 11th July at the Catholic Hall in Sedgfield. Contact the Sedgfield Art Society for further information 044 343 2827.

A RIGHT OLD TREAT FROM JOY GROUP & MASITHANDANE

The elderly folk of Smutsville and Karatara were given a wonderful Winter treat on Wednesday 22 June, when the St Francis Church 'Joy Group' blessed them with a three course hot lunch, as well as cake and all sorts of other delightful goodies. This is the sixth annual luncheon thrown for the elderly by the Joy Group.

There were over eighty oldies at the festive do - all part of the Masithandane "Forget-Me-Nots" project which organises regular outings for the sometimes forgotten old folk. With the ladies of St Francis handling the cooking and serving of the delicious meal, the Masithandane ladies decided to make the day even brighter by laying on the entertainment. Dressing up as various comical characters they danced and sang amongst the old people, bringing laughs and cheers from all.

One particularly happy lady Ada Windwaai was even more full of smiles, and one of her friends let it slip that it was her birthday. We stopped at her table to confirm this and she said "What day is it today? 22 June? Then I am 90 today!"

SEDGE CHRISTIAN CHURCH TURNING 29

The members and leadership of the charismatic Sedgefield Christian Church will be celebrating its 29th birthday at 9.30am this Sunday, and would love to invite local folks to come and join them.

The church has come quite a way since it started back in 1987, with its first service ever being held in the home of Ron and Rose Godfrey on the first Sunday of July. At the time the congregation was a round figure of eight.

But within two years it had grown so much they moved to the Sedgefield Town Hall where, under the spiritual guidance of Pastor Noel van der Merwe, they stayed until 2004, with their numbers ever-increasing.

In May of that year the Church was able to purchase their current building. At the time it was a builders' warehouse owned by Hennie Kombrink, but once members of the church congregation got going with the renovations, it wasn't too long before the warm and inviting home of Sedgefield Christian Church emerged.

According to Pastor Noel, who still leads the flock, they have even further plans to expand the church.

"This year we want to open up part of the building to establish a Youth Centre," he said, "But not just for our members' families - for the whole community of Sedgefield." He also said that an outreach soup kitchen is part of the plan - a welcome and much needed service for Sedgefield.

Noel and his wife Susan thanked the members for their support over the years and look forward to seeing everyone at the Celebration this Sunday.

CHERISH CLEANS UP & EATS UP

by Ginny Viner

The Cherish Project members got together and made Sedgefield's streets that much cleaner!

As an exercise in social/community responsibility, and to work up an appetite for the end of term treat, the children and helpers in the 'Cherish' project took to the streets around the Anglican Church of Resurrection last week armed with black bags, and recycling clear bags. In quite a short time they had enthusiastically managed to fill most of the bags with rubbish!

After the clean up, we all took off to Cafe Vienna where Paul Herd and his team treated all the children to cups of frothy hot chocolate and huge plates full of chicken, rice and veggies. It was a very special outing for children unused to 'eating out', and they did us proud!

Thanks to Cafe Vienna for treating the Cherish kids.

Cherish is a Masithandane initiative and sessions are held at the Anglican church premises every Thursday afternoon during term time. We are seeking more volunteer helpers for this very worthwhile project.

The work is sometimes hard but extremely rewarding and doesn't have to be every week. Please contact me, Ginny at 0824579813 or ginnylviner@telkomsa.net for more information on becoming involved. God Bless.

BIBLE TRUTH FOR THIS DAY

BABYLON" Par 2. Babylon is a substitute religion which satisfies man's traditions and lifestyle, rather than living by "every word that proceeds from the mouth of God" (Matt 4:4). In these last days Christ pleads, "Come out of her my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues" (Rev 18:4).

Dear Editor,

Knysna Salary Increases - is this possible?

There is a rumour doing the rounds that the Knysna Municipality have granted to themselves a 21% increase, and if this rumour is true, it is horrendous. Behind closed doors, to me, it would smack of corruption and not the sort of thing one would expect from the DA.

As I say, it is a rumour, and also no mention of this massive increase was made in the Mayor's last budget as detailed in the Edge, issue 489 dated 01 June 2016.

It would not surprise me if this rumour is really true, in view of the fact that Knysna Municipality have reduced the free water for "non indigent residents" down to 3 kilo-litres, in all probability to fund this rumoured massive increase for our councillors, while "indigent" residents continue to get 6 kilo-litres free water and much else most probably. And what happens next year, will the Municipality again further reduce the free water allocations to us "non indigents" to meet their next salary increase?

Part of my ancestors arrived at the Cape in 1658, long before any of the "indigent" peoples crossed the Fish River. Does this not perhaps make me an "indigent", having had ancestors here for the last 358 years or, do I not qualify on account of skin colour?

The DA seem to be of the opinion that most "non indigent" residents will automatically vote for them and that the Old Age Grants for "non indigents" go further than Old Age Grants for "indigent" residents.

DA, you are wrong on both accounts. A couple of us old timers will definitely not be voting for the DA this time around and perhaps not again in the future.

And to top it all, the ex ANC mayor has jumped ship and joined KM, no doubt for the fat salary and perks, and she has been accepted with open arms in the hope that she will woo ANC voters to the DA.

Regards
Disgruntled and disillusioned Ratepayer.

Peter Myers - Spokesperson for the DA responds to the above letter as follows:-

Dear Sir

With reference to the 'rumour' that the Knysna Municipality have granted themselves a 21% increase and the comment that this smacks of corruption, I presume your reader is referring to the budgeted increase in councillor allowances and salaries in the 2016/17 budget. It is important to note that the total number of councillors will increase from 19 to 21 following the Local Elections. Therefore provision has to be made for this increased number of councillors, which accounts for the majority of the increased amount being allocated. The minister at national level determines the year on year increase for individual councillors and for this year the increase was only 5.5%.

The reduction in free water for non-indigent residents is certainly not to provide for increased remuneration, but is an acknowledgement by the council that we live in a water scarce area. By reducing the free water allowance for everyone other than indigents, the Council is demonstrating its commitment to the responsible use of this scarce and valuable resource. Your reader seems to be confusing 'indigent' with 'indigenous'. Indigent refers to poor and impoverished people who do not have the means to pay and it is right that there is an obligation and a duty to provide free water for this group of people.

In Loving Memory Lynette Agnes Joshua

Notice is hereby given that the Annual General Meeting of Sedgemoer Park Home for the Aged will be held in the Dining Hall at Sedgemoer Park, corner of Flamingo and Kingfisher Roads on Thursday 14 July 2016 at 2.30 p.m.

Visitors Welcome

It is also incorrect to say that the ex ANC mayor jumped ship. Eleanore Bouw-Spies left the ANC in 2011 and spent 3 years outside of politics. In 2014 she joined the DA because she agreed wholeheartedly with its vision for South Africa as a country for all of those who live in it based on its core values of freedom, fairness and opportunity. She was subsequently chosen by the DA as its candidate in the 2014 by-election in ward 5 and became a DA councillor. Cllr Bouw-Spies has demonstrated over a long period of time, both as a past Mayor and as the current Speaker of Council, that she has the necessary skills, knowledge and experience to be an exceptional community leader and we have no doubt that she will show the necessary commitment and leadership to be an outstanding Mayor for Knysna over the next five years.

opinion and that is a given.

I, however, need to ask the writer of the letter named "Peace and Quiet." If you are so hip and happening, why did you ever move away from the noise you so adore?

To the letter writer named "Killing me Loudly," I say a huge thank you!

We are in the "noise zone" on the N2 and have NO respite from the constant, 24/7, droning and vibrations - not from traffic on the highway, mind you - but from the area encompassing the Recycling Plant, The Municipal Yard and the Fire Station. Also the late night refrigeration trucks all over.

I read with great interest your article the part where residents with 100 metres should be asked for written permission if the event, in this case buildings, put there by Knysna Municipality from which constant activity are a cause of noise pollution.

With all the upgrading since August 2015. There has not been one single evening that there have not been vibrations shaking our house's foundations.

The trucks are being started and idled for hours. I know, as I can hear and feel every move the workers that work at night make. Sounds emanate from all over with heavy duty trucks parking for the night all the time and although SAPS have been very accommodating by requesting the drivers to move on, this noise on top of the constant vibrations from across the N2 is now a huge issue for us. It has been for almost a year!

I do not believe anyone who denies that there is a noise pollution problem coming from these sources. Why? I can't sleep, so I go out there and make sure I know what I claim.

Last night (20 June) the noise and vibrations started a 21h00 and lasted the entire night. Vibrations of our house's foundations and idling from heavy duty vehicles - truckers or otherwise.

So, in conclusion, Messrs Hip Hop and Happening, your pleasure is someone else's pain. We heard every "doef" on top of what is described above.

Gatvol has let the worms out!

USE WATER SPARINGLY DURING THE OYSTER FESTIVAL

With the 33rd Pick n Pay Knysna Oyster Festival kicking off on 1 July, Knysna and Sedgefield are expecting a massive influx of visitors. This poses added strain on our already low water reserves and Knysna Municipality urges all residents and visitors to treat water as the precious resource it is.

Executive Mayor Georlene Wolmarans says: "Although we welcome everyone to the Pick n Pay Knysna Oyster Festival with open arms, I call on residents and visitors alike to help the municipality by continuing to use water sparingly.

"As a town our consumption level (10,3 megalitres per day) is still above the desired eight megalitres, and with more than 50 000 visitors expected during the first couple of weeks in July, we expect increased consumption which, in turn, means additional strain on our water reserves.

"I cannot stress enough the need to keep consumption levels as low as possible to ensure our reserves last until our contingency measures can remedy the reserve levels.

Although the level of the Akkerkloof dam has increased to almost 40% (from 34% a few weeks ago), we still have far to go."

Knysna Municipality would like to point out the following important changes to water supply tariffs:

- The free allocation of water has been decreased from 6 000 litres per month to 3 000 litres (except for our indigent residents).

- The water tariff rates have been adjusted drastically in the recent budget with the rate for the first 10 000 litres remaining affordable at R11,92 per kilolitre.

- Consumers not making an effort to curb consumption will pay heavily for water usage above 10 000 litres, with the rate rising drastically to R19,14 per kilolitre for consumption up to 20 kilolitres, climbing to over R40 per kilolitre when consumption reaches 40 000 litres or more per month.

"Our water restriction measures remain in place," says Mayor Wolmarans, "Water your garden only at dusk (18:00 to 19:00) on designated days with Mondays, Wednesdays & Fridays for houses with even numbers, and Tuesdays, Thursdays & Saturdays for houses with odd numbers. Please adhere to the tips as communicated through our Water Awareness Campaign.

"It is my sincere hope these measures will not dampen the spirit and vibe of the Pick n Pay Knysna Oyster Festival and I trust each and every one will have a fabulous time during the best ten days of winter.

"Please be responsible not only in regards to water consumption, but alcohol consumption as well. Remain patient on our roads as we are expecting the usual congestion we experience during the festival.

"All our various departments and law enforcement divisions will be on alert to ensure you have a safe and enjoyable time with us."

Slow Town Mobile Meals

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT June 2016

Another year has passed and thanks to the generosity of the people of Sedgefield, we are still preparing and delivering approximately 1 200 meals a month to people less fortunate than ourselves.

Funding is essential to enable us to "provide & deliver meals to the aged, frail and disabled or needy people, regardless of race, colour or creed". Our income comes from three main sources, our regular committed monthly supporters, donations from charity organisations including various churches and fund-raising activities such as raffles, making pancakes and can collections at Wild Oats Farmers' Market. We are also grateful for the contributions of a variety of food and vegetables received, sometimes anonymously, at our kitchen in the Municipal offices.

Over recent months, there has been a concerning trend showing a decline in our funds, where our monthly expenses have exceeded our monthly income. Whilst we are in a stronger financial position than we were 18 months ago, I would appeal to those who can afford it, to commit to regular monthly payments into our account with FNB a/c 62502775549.

Our charity is run mainly by volunteers and there is no "management charge" reducing our income. The majority of all donations goes to the purchase of supplies used in the preparation of meals. We have two paid employees working in the kitchen and we serve meals to the people of Sedgefield and the immediate surrounds.

We have a new Non-Profit Organisation number, 150-516NPO and having completed our first fiscal year, we have applied to SARS for Income Tax Exemption. We are in a position to issue donation receipts in terms of section 18A of the Income Tax Act 1962. Any requests to obtain this document may be sent to patmitchellza@gmail.com. We could not exist without our group of volunteers who give their time to help with delivering meals and assist us with our various fund-raising events. My very grateful thanks also to the members of the committee who have adopted their individual portfolios with enthusiasm and do sterling work. Saskia for doing great with Secretarial duties, Judith for keeping meticulous control of our finances, Beattie for her economic buying of our supplies, Alan, our stalwart chef in the kitchen with his helpers Elsie and Chantal, Meg for keeping control of our "client list" and Angie for church liaison.

We are making a difference in the lives of a number people in Sedgefield, who are less fortunate than us and with your help we will be to continue with this worthy cause.

GEARING UP FOR GREEN

By Mike Young

PLASTIC-FREE JULY

That's the name of an organisation based in Perth, Western Australia, which seems to be spreading across the world – and rightfully so! It was started in July 2011 by 40 committed enthusiasts.

Here is an extract of their web-site explanation of what they try to do and why. It was written in 2015:

"Plastic Free July aims to raise awareness of the problems and amount of single-use disposable plastic in our lives and challenges people to do something about it. You can sign up for a day, a week or the whole month and try to refuse ALL single-use plastic or try the TOP 4: plastic bags, water bottles, takeaway coffee cups and straws.

"By 2050 it is estimated there will be more plastic than fish in the world's oceans. Most comes from land and was once in our hands. Refuse single-use plastic and together let's keep our oceans clean. Join over 40,000 people, schools and organisations from 90 countries and let those same hands be part of the solution."

Reading this spurred me on to find out whether there was any support in South Africa. Whilst I didn't find any records of individuals who are members of Plastics Free July, I did find lots of pointers to people and organisations who are trying to do the same thing and I decided to share some of them with our readers.

The initiative that I found most stimulating is happening at Jan van Riebeeck Primary School in Cape Town. They have started what they call Liewe Aarde Club, which has produced a 5 minute video called "No Packet Required". The school collects all discarded packaging and once a week it is picked up by a local enterprise called Recycle1st which sorts it into paper, glass, plastic and so on. The plastic is sent to a company called Tuffy where it is processed for reuse. The scholars went to Tuffy where they were shown round by the owner.

What struck me, having watched the video, was the infectious enthusiasm of those who made it. There's no doubt in my mind that they are trying to influence family and friends to do things very differently

A Cape Town based company called GreenHome makes plates, knives, forks and spoons from sugar cane left-over called Bagasse. These can be composted after use. They tell me that they have a number of customers in the Sedgefield area.

All this got me thinking about how else Sedgefield could help to reduce a global plague which is set to destroy our oceans and all that live in them. Without doubt, the single most important thing is to query every item of plastic that is part of anything you buy. Get into the habit of taking shopping bags with you.

"In the first ten years of this century, more plastic was used than in the ENTIRE last century"

I also gave some thought to what might define a good local retailer. Who uses the least amount of plastic packaging when you buy something? One very good example is Mr Kaai, the fish and chip shop. The only plastic they use is small pots for salads and they tell me that if you return these containers they will clean them and reuse them. Wild Oats is another place where they've had some success. If you take your own mug for filling you will get your coffee at a discounted price. They are also discouraging stall holders from using expanded polystyrene containers, these being difficult to recycle.

THE CHALLENGE FROM PLASTIC FREE JULY

1. Attempt to refuse single-use plastic during July. 'Single-use' includes plastic shopping bags, plastic cups, straws, plastic packaging... basically anything that's intended only to be used once and then discarded. If refusing ALL single-use plastic sounds too daunting this time, try the TOP 4 challenge (plastic bags, bottles, takeaway coffee cups and straws).

2. Remember it's not going to be easy! It is a challenge, not a competition so don't worry about being perfect.

3. Collect any unavoidable single-use plastic you buy. Keep in a 'dilemma' bag to remind you at the end of the challenge.

4. It's up to you regarding how long you participate. You might decide to go plastic-free for a day, a week, a month or longer! However long you choose will still make a contribution.

Why you should participate

Apart from the small amount of plastic which has been incinerated EVERY piece of plastic which was ever produced still exists on earth somewhere. In the first 10 years of this century MORE plastic was produced than the entire last century! Why use something for a few seconds that is going to spend the rest of your life trying to break down in landfill? We really need to change our habits. We owe this to our children and their children. Our planet cannot sustain any other way of doing things.

On Monday and Tuesday, 4 and 5 July from 17:30 to 21:00 Sedgefield residents, Belinda and Gavin Hobson and their dynamic team will be hosting the Knysna Wine Festival for the 11th year running.

This wine festival still remains one of the firm favourites of the over 140 annual Pick n Pay Knysna Oyster Festival events and the most popular mid-week event. "We wanted to launch an exclusive Wine Festival in the Garden Route," explained Belinda, "One which would allow guests to interact with high profile vintners while tasting their wines." And so the Knysna Wine Festival was born, and it joined the successful Pick n Pay Knysna Oyster Festival in 2005. Not only does the Wine Fest allow participants to enjoy the best South African wines, but a portion of the door takings are donated by the Hobsons to a local Sedgefield charity. This year they have chosen Sedgefield Slow Town Meals as the beneficiary.

KNYSNA WINE FESTIVAL

Wine sales are managed by Pick n Pay, guaranteeing cellar prices to those buying any festival wines.

The hundreds of wine lovers who flock to this beautiful wine festival will get to enjoy over 200 wines from more than 50 different wine estates. Wine connoisseurs and quaffers will have the pleasure of tasting the many wines and champagne, as well as single malt whiskies (presented by Hector Macbeth) AND chocolates and cheeses.

These wines and whiskies will be available for purchase at special, cellar door prices and cheeses at low celebratory prices.

On both Monday and Tuesday guests are set to be blown away by the event's beautiful décor and given the opportunity to once again relax in a specially designated lounge area.

"Both Gavin and I are absolutely thrilled to celebrate our festival with sponsors, Stanmar Motors / Mercedes Benz and Protea Hotel Knysna Quays," says Belinda, "And we're equally delighted to have a selection of local wine estates presenting their 'local is lekker' flavour to the festival goers."

Entry costs a mere R130 which includes a wine tasting glass, unlimited wine tasting, wine information booklet and entry to numerous lucky draws.

As tickets are limited, wine lovers are well-advised to book now.

Tickets are available online at webtickets.co.za or directly from Knysna and Sedgefield Tourism Offices.

The EDGE on Health

Rehabilitation - Not A Quick Fix!

by Melanie Baumeister

Why do we need to have rehabilitation? Well, amongst other reasons if you've had an injury or surgery then you are no longer in the condition that you're accustomed to.

Rehabilitation is the slow process of getting you back as close as possible to the way you were before the accident or surgery. The trauma that you've been through physically takes its toll and will continue to do so, unless you address the physical issues that arise. Pain is an alarm and if you ignore it, it's like putting it on 'snooze' - it's still there.

When should one start a rehabilitation regime? Ideally, if you follow the process to the 't', then six to eight weeks is a good time to ease into it. Regular rehabilitation treatments depending on the severity of the injury would be determined by your health care professional, a decision which is based on the assessment of your current condition and situation. Inflammation needs healing on a cellular level, in which case, we use medication. After six to eight weeks of treatment via anti-inflammatories et al one should be good to go. Always check with your doctor before starting something new after you've been under their care.

Where should one look to start rehabilitation? Depending on the reason that you need 'rehab' a good place to start would be with your doctor or physiotherapist. A surgeon should have 'rehabilitation professionals' that they refer to - and it's a matter of asking well in advance of needing the treatments - especially if the 'work' is needed after surgery. Rehabilitation could involve any number of steps, from regular physio therapies in which the health care professional mobilizes you and then in to bio-kinetics, swimming, walking, Callanetics or Pilates - where you mobilize yourself.

And therein lies the rub, rehabilitation is first something that seems to be outsourced. But essentially the onus is on the individual to keep up with the maintenance. It isn't over night that one miraculously bounces back - quite the contrary, it takes time to recover. A balance of time resting and moving towards the ultimate goal of perfect health. Remember, there is no rush or quick fix to your former self - in fact, they say, 'the amount of time it took you to get into this condition, double that to get back to where you were.' Obviously in the case of surgery that isn't the case but if you think of what you put your body through with major operations in hospital then you can respect that it's going to take time to recover. Patience is key and a sense of humour essential.

Whatever it takes to get back on the road to a normal healthy lifestyle, never forget one thing, keep breathing.

BEAUTIFUL MOMENTS DESERVE THE CLEAREST VISION

Watching a movie, playing with your kids, enjoying the sunset... In many situations your glasses are your daily ally for seeing clearly and enjoying the moment. But daily life can sometimes be challenging for your vision.

Have you ever been annoyed by dirty lenses? Been bothered by bright light while driving at night? Or noticed a scratch after dropping your glasses? These situations where your clarity of vision is compromised can be frustrating.

Sedge's Gentlemen's Club

Winter arrived with the Monthly Mug competition and it was a winter's day of discontent for one Ali Lasskorn. Or was it?

The Oxford dictionary defines "mug" as a drinking vessel or a buffoon. As there is no mug presented one can only surmise that the competition is aimed at celebrating mediocrity and Ali is no stranger to this situation.
Strangely no one asks who won the competition but wants to know who the "mug" was and it is he who is placed on the pedestal. So congratulations to Ali on his re-taking of the duck/mug for the umpteenth time, with 24 points. Surely he has made the "duck" his own personal possession, so fond is he of acquiring it.

With a net score of 56 strokes,
the winner of the A Division was James Polson. It is said that James loves golf so much that when he hugs his wife he uses an interlocking grip. In second place was Buks Triegaardt with 57, which was great after his poor showing in the better ball competition of the previous week. Third spot went to Mike Newbury with a score of 58.

In the B Division the top points scorer was Henry Growther with 38 points pipping Peter Heath with 35 and the effervescent Terry Savage on 34.

The day was capped with a thoroughly enjoyable braai and Ali's yodelling
reverberated amongst the hills late into the night.
23/06/16
Winter has reintroduced the silly season at the SLGC. The day's competition was called cross country. You are required to tee off the first tee to the third green, for example, and then from the third tee to the first green and so on in a mad scramble over the whole course. On paper it resembles a demented game of snakes and ladders. One is generally not given to theological speculation but when the eventual winners Henry Growther and Dave Wright were announced, after a countout, on 45 points beating
Philip Hendrikse and Hamish Ledingham, one wonders. In third place were Hans and Terry Harflett.
Next week players will only be allowed to bring three clubs onto the course. A note of thanks for the greenkeeper, Mr Mynaardt, who is doing a sterling job.

GOLFING DURING THE OYSTER FESTIVAL

With the Pick n Pay Knysna Oyster Festival taking place in Knysna (one of South Africa's golfing Meccas) in July, golfers will be well advised to polish up their golf clubs as the festival is hosting a myriad of exciting golfing competitions.

No less than eight competitions have been added to the Festival programme, exclusively for golfing enthusiasts. The Imperial Auto Festival of Golf and the Europcar Knysna Classic will both be contested at the Pezula Championship Golf course, and the Blackwaters River Lodge & Mashie Golf Course Par 3 Golf Series.

The Pezula Championship Course has, since its inception, received several prestigious national and international awards, such as the Complete Golfer's 5 Star Golfing Experience Award and the Global Golf Tourism Organisation's (IAGTO) Best Golfing Destination in Africa and the Middle East Award. All Imperial Auto Festival of Golf competitions will be open to the public and played using the Betterball Competition Format, with the Europcar Classic being a four-ball competition with a shot-gun start.

Parents and their children will team up on Friday 1 July to test their family golfing prowess against other families in the Imperial Auto Festival of Golf's Parent & Child Day. This competition has no age limit, but young children taking part should be proficient on the course. The organisers encourage older children, even if they are adults, to enter this competition with one of their parents. The Pezula Mixed takes place on Sunday, 3 July and the seniors will have their turn on Monday, 4 July.

Pezula Championship Golf Course will welcome the ladies on Tuesday, July 5 for the Imperial Auto Festival of Golf's Ladies' Day and the Men's Day will follow on Thursday, July 7.

Players will be taking dead-aim on Friday 8 July in an attempt to win a 2016 Sprite Sprint caravan valued at R170 000. All golfers competing in the Europcar Knysna Classic need to do is hit a hole-in-one at the fifth and the caravan is theirs.

Pezula Championship Course is situated right at the epicentre of Knysna. It offers dynamic views of the Indian Ocean, the Knysna estuary and the Outeniqua Mountain Range.

Blackwaters River Lodge and Mashie Golf Course will welcome children between the ages of seven and eleven years on Monday and Wednesday, 4 and 6 July during the Blackwaters Mashie Golf Course Par 3 Golf Series.

Youngsters will play a nine-hole competition on the respective days. While the young golfers battle it out, their family and friends are invited to enjoy the hospitality of the lodge's Earth & Fire Restaurant. Here delicious food and array of local wines are guaranteed to ensure them a pleasant few hours while their children test their golfing skills.

Although the entries to both days of the Par 3 Golf Series' Junior Masters and Seniors Classics, played on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 4 till 6 July are not open to the public, spectators are welcome to watch the top junior and senior Par 3 golfers of the area battle it out on this unique mashie course.

Details on the Festival's full programme, event details, registration and ticket costs, can be obtained from www.pnpoysterfestival.co.za or follow the Pick n Pay Knysna Oyster Festival on Twitter @OysterFestival or on Facebook/KnysnaOysterFestival for daily updates.

HELP SUPPORT 'SPORT AGAINST CRIME'

Martie Rooi, Chairperson of the Smutsville-based First Aid Crew, along with the rest of her crew members, are looking for partners to assist them in putting together a soccer tournament. The theme is "Sport Against Crime" and the plan is to host it at the Community Sports Centre. The tournament will run over the two weekends of the 23rd and 30th July 2016.

In their duties as first aiders, the crew have often treated young people who have been injured due to fighting or other similar negative activities, and so they understand the need to keep youngsters 'off the streets'. Sport, particularly soccer, is one of the most popular ways this can be achieved, which is why they feel a tournament is a great way for them to encourage youngsters.

They would like to ask for donations for this project, and hope that individuals and / or businesses may be able to assist with the following:

- 1 big trophy
- 3 medium trophies
- Soccer balls
- Water bottles
- 10 gift packs (eg stationery)
- Vouchers
- String bags
- Basic sport first aid kits.
